

Dr. Natarajan Venkatachalam, currently Scientist at SETS Chennai has worked in the cyber-security area for nearly 15 years. Prior to joining SETS, Natarajan was post doctoral research fellow at Quantum Engineering Technology, University of Bristol, England. He received M.Sc and PhD from Anna university, Chennai. His research on Secure Quantum communications and experimental quantum key distribution systems focused on the fundamental and applied quantum cryptography. He has over 25 research publications and 5 patents to his name.